Dr. Jason Werkema is Professor of Music and Chair of the Worship Arts Division at Grace Bible College, Grand Rapids, Michigan. He also maintains www.JasonWerkema.com, a website that provides free music learning resources and video instruction for guitarists of all styles.

With expertise in acoustic, classical and jazz guitar, he is distinguished in Michigan as a leading guitar teacher and mentor. An accomplished musician, he has performed concerts in churches, recital halls, and schools throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe, including a series of performances at the World's Fair in Sevilla, Spain.

He has participated in guitar master classes and/or private study with renowned guitarists including David Russell, Sharon Isbin, Alice Artzt, Chris Buzzelli, John Holmquist, Brian Morris, and Paul Vondiziano.

Previous to his current administrative/faculty position, he finished a Bachelors of Music degree in Classical Guitar Performance at Cornerstone University in Grand Rapids, Michigan and a Masters of Music degree in Jazz and Classical Guitar at Bowling Green State University, Ohio. His Doctor of Philosophy degree is in Higher Education Leadership from Western Michigan University.

He has also served as an adjunct professor at Calvin College, Cornerstone University, the Grand Rapids Community College, and as a graduate teaching assistant at Bowling Green State University. Furthermore, Dr. Werkema was a founding member of the Grand Rapids Guitar Quartet.

Apart from music, he enjoys reading, photography, audio and video production, kayaking, golfing, camping, motorcycling, and especially family time. He and his wife, Darcie, have three children, Adam, Holly, and Melissa.
